HAWAII AND SPAIN.

Hawaii has a present opportunity of exerting a wide reaching influence in a generous gift for educational work in Spain as was well shown in the addresses made last evening in Central Union Church by Mrs. W. F. Frear and Rev. W. D. Westervelt, and also in the remarks of Rev. O. H. Gulick and Lyle Dickey. Facts were presented concerning "The National Institute for Girls" founded in Spain by Mrs. Wm. H. Gulick. An effort is already under way toward raising a modest amount to send to Spain as a friendly gift and thus aid in securing grounds and buildings for this philanthropic enterprise. Almost $1000 have been pledged or paid. Small pledges as well as large can be sent to Miss Caroline D. Castle who will act as treasurer of the fund.
